CDAW was created to address the disconnect between individuals with intellectual disabilities and the members of our community. CDAW partners with service providers, law enforcement, educators, parents, county officials, and community members to bridge the gap and increase awareness, build partnerships, address barriers, and create community inclusion.

This workgroup meets the 1st Monday of the month at 8:30 AM in person/virtual

LET'S GET TO KNOW ONE ANOTHER BETTER!

People with and without disabilities are contributing to our community every day. The Community Disability Awareness Workshop will provide information and guidance about different disabilities, and disability issues, to help us understand everyone's needs and work to build a more inclusive community for Indiana County and beyond.

WHO NEEDS MORE INFORMATION ABOUT DIFFERENT DISABILITIES?

People with disabilities, their families, Business personnel/retailers; 1st responders, law-enforcement; medical/hospital personnel, legislators; churches; school staff; office personnel; university students, professors, and staff; school educators; agencies/service providers; other interested community members.
