PA Dept of Education Extends FAPE To 22nd Birthday

Part of PEAL's
Back to School
Series

What does it mean? Who does it impact? What do I need know?

Join us to hear from Carole L. Clancy, Ed.D.
Director of the Bureau of Special Education

September 28th 6:00pm

Under new PA Department of Education policy, students who receive special education services may access their free, appropriate public education until their 22nd birthday.

The PEAL Center, along with HUNE and Mission Empower, will host Bureau of Special Director Carole Clancy to explain more about the new policy. She will answer questions about the new policy and how it may affect your child with disabilities. (She will be available after the presentation to answer your questions).
